

Chef Jack Gilmore Serves It Up Again This Thanksgiving

Long Standing Tradition of Giving Back to Public Servants Continues in Oak Hill

For Immediate Release

Austin, TX November 24, 2009                      Chef Jack Gilmore will feed the Oak Hill Station #301 firefighters and their families a Texan-inspired feast on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 26, 2009. This is part of Gilmore's "work here, give here" philosophy, stemming from the future opening of his new restaurant, Jack Allen's Kitchen, located at 7720 Highway 71 West, near the "Y" in Oak Hill. Prep work will begin at 8:30a Thursday morning, with food service starting at 11a; Station 301 is located at 9211 Circle Drive, Austin, Texas.

For years Chef Gilmore has shared his time and resources by serving Thanksgiving dinner to public servants, most recently cooking for hundreds of Fort Hood-based service men and women during his previous stint as corporate chef at Z Tejas Grill. Oak Hill firefighters and their families will enjoy a menu designed especially for them by Gilmore, inspired by his Jack Allen's Kitchen locally-sourced menu creations.

Scheduled to open mid December 2009, Jack Allen's Kitchen is the new concept created by Chef Gilmore and Tom Kamm. The restaurant will serve fresh, Texan-style food and drinks in its newly remodeled lounge, dining room, and patio bar. Kamm and Gilmore bring national expertise and experience to the creative Austin culinary environment, creating an all-around quality dining experience for guests.

For information and updates on the restaurant opening, please visit www.jackallenskitchen.com, or text "CHAIR" to 74700.

Facebook:                      Jack Allen's Kitchen
Twitter                              @jackallens

Restaurant
Location:                      Jack Allen's Kitchen
   7720 Highway 71 West
   Austin, TX 78735
   512.852.8558

Media Contact:                      Angela Fulcher 512.470.1970 / afulcher@strategisbrand.com

###